Thorn-Clarke Sandpiper Riesling 2018

Region: Eden Valley

Rating: 94/100 👍 👍

Thorn-Clarke Sandpiper Riesling is on a roll. Winner of trophies for 'Best White Wine' and 'Best Riesling' at the Rutherglen Wine Show but more impressively, scoring gold medals at a string of major state wine shows including Melbourne, Adelaide and Perth. Estate grown and skillfully made it has a vibrant, pale straw colour with green highlights. The nose shows perfumed floral notes along with fresh cut white peach and kaffir lime leaf. The palate follows through with juicy citrus flavours and light spice, along the long, balanced acidity and fine minerality on the finish. Stunning value.

TYRRELLS 165th Anniversary @BUON RICORDO

We are very pleased to announce that Kemenys will be hosting a Tyrrell's 165th Anniversary dinner Thursday March 28th, and a luncheon on Friday March 29th, both at the superb Buon Ricordo restaurant.

Tyrrell's, one of Australia's greatest families of wine, commenced wine production in 1854. They are the undisputed champions when it comes to making all the traditional Hunter Valley wine styles such as semillon, chardonnay and shiraz. Their 'Vat' wines have delivered some of the greatest-ever Australian multi-trophy winning wines. Tyrrell's have prided themselves on making wines of the highest quality reflecting family tradition which has spanned a period of five generations.

What better venue to celebrate Tyrrell's 165th Anniversary than Paddington's Buon Ricordo, one of Sydney's finest Italian restaurants. In 1987 Buon Ricordo (Italian for Good Memory) opened its doors, with founder Armando Percuoco at the helm, serving the traditional food of his birthplace, Naples. Today, those traditional dishes are blended with innovative new creations by Head Chef and owner Peter Wright, Armando's long-time protégé. Customers comment that dining at Buon Ricordo invokes a feeling of warmth and intimacy with attentive, kind and nurturing service, which creates an automatic synergy with Tyrrell's 'old-school' culture and traditional wine styles. Along with their other classic dishes they will be serving their iconic signature dish, Truffled-egg fettucine, which is guaranteed to put a smile on every face.

There will be lots of great food matched with most of Tyrrell's finest, including the legendary Vat 1 Semillon, Vat 47 Chardonnays, Vat 9 Shiraz and Vat 8 Shiraz Cabernet and some great examples of their Single Vineyard Range such as Stevens, Belford and HVD. There will also be some special back-vintage wines to savour.

As always this will be a lot of fun, so make sure you book early to avoid missing out.

WHEN: Thursday 28th March (Dinner) 6.30pm for 7pm AND
Friday 29th March (Lunch) 12 noon for 12.30

WHERE: Buon Ricordo, 108 Boundary Street, Paddington, NSW

COST: $195 a head

JAMES HALLIDAY TOP 100 WINES

Sparkling and Champagne

Tasmania's cool-climate leads the way when it comes to top quality Australian sparkling wines. The perfect growing conditions produce superb flavour and structure, particularly the beautiful natural acidity which is all important.

Of course Champagne is the king of sparkling wines and James Halliday has given us a list of famous big names as well as some lesser known, highly respected houses which fly 'under the radar.'

"A POWERFUL WINE", JAMES HALLIDAY

Clover Hill Vintage Brut 2013

Region: Tasmania
Rating: 95/100

Chardonnay, pinot noir and pinot meunier, whole-bunch pressed and separately fermented, blended prior to secondary fermentation and matured on lees for five years, the dosage 9g/l. A powerful wine, the bouquet spicy, with dried flower and fruit aromas, the palate picking up the chase immediately. Alcohol: 12.5%. Closure: Diam. Date tasted: Sep 2018. Price: $45. "SO EXCEPTIONAL", JAMES HALLIDAY

Arras Grand Vintage 2008

Region: Tasmania
Rating: 97/100

Bright straw-green; this is as energetic and fresh as a 3yo vintage sparkling, showing no signs of age. Granny Smith apple, lemon zest and unsweetened lemon juice flavours cloak the deliberate tannins in the wine, are all there as part of the structure and texture that make this wine so exceptional. JAMES HALLIDAY TOP 100 WINES

The publication of James Halliday's Top 100 Wines is always eagerly anticipated by consumers and producers alike. For the consumer, it provides a reliable guide to the best wines right across the price spectrum. It can also bring to the fore lesser known producers, varieties and styles. Halliday received thousands of submissions covering the vast majority of Australian wine regions. Value for money is taken into account when compiling the list, which is a feature close to Kemenys' heart. We've selected the pick of the James Halliday Top 100 Wines at Kemenys low prices.

LARRY CHERUBINO

Larry Cherubino's journey has been very busy, having been head winemaker at Houghton, a traveling winemaking consultant, designing vineyards and wineries, and also working vintages in New Zealand, USA, France, Italy and South Africa.

Larry and wife Edwina purchased their first parcel of land in Frankland River in 2004 with dreams of planting our own vineyard. It was a small parcel that had originally been part of a large, historic land holding called Riversdale. A few years later they had the opportunity to buy the neighbouring vineyard, and acres of prime river and vineyard country. Larry Cherubino Wines began in a spare room in 2005 with the release of one wine.

Much has happened since, with the stellar quality of his broad portfolio resulting in countless major accolades and regular rave reviews from the wine press.

"THE VALUE OFFERED NEEDS NO COMMENT", JAMES HALLIDAY

Larry Cherubino Ad Hoc Wallflower Riesling 2018

Region: Great Southern
Rating: 95/100 🍷👍

Wallflower indeed. The bouquet is full of high-pitched citrus and wild flower aromas, the palate beating a tattoo of drums with its intensity and insistent length. The name suggests it's a shy and unassuming wine, and I totally disagree with that. The value offered needs no comment. Alcohol: 12%. Closure: screwcap. Drink to: 2030. Price: $21. Rating: 95/100.

This has exceptional varietal flavour, both complex and long; it's not obvious, but the wine was partially fermented in French oak, which hasn't diminished the fruit expression, but has subtly increased the complexity. Appropriate terroir, high quality grapes and good winemaking at work. Alcohol: 12.8%. Date tasted: Sep 2018. Drink by: 2021. Price: $25. Rating: 95/100.

JAMES HALLIDAY TOP 100 WINES

Whites

The James Halliday Top 100 whites under $25 list is dominated by wines which are all about fresh flavours, crisp acidity and, coincidentally, great value for money. Top quality riesling and sauvignon blanc are found throughout this category, and should cover everyone's festive white wine entertaining requirements with plenty of style.

The over $25 category adds a number of outstanding chardonnays and semillons which scream "special occasion", and some new-breed textural, cellarable sauvignon blanc and blends. Each wine on this list is an ideal option for the season's special events

TAHBILK

With over 150 years of winemaking experience you are sure to find some absolute gems in the Tahbilk repertoire and there is a history and character with varietals that goes back generations.

Marsanne is one of the world's rarest grape varieties originating in the Northern Rhone and Hermitage regions of France. It is grown in only 3 other countries, Australia, America and Switzerland. Tahbilk holds the largest and oldest single planting of the variety in the world. Tahbilk's history with Marsanne is traced back to the 1860's with the sourcing of 'White Hermitage' cuttings from the 'St Hubert's' Vineyard in Victoria's Yarra Valley. The grape was Marsanne and although none of these plantings have survived, the Estate still produces Marsanne from plantings dating back to 1927.

"TAHBILK KNOWS MARSANNE LIKE THE BACK OF ITS HAND", JAMES HALLIDAY

Tahbilk Marsanne 2018

Region: Goulburn Valley
Rating: 94/100 🍷👍

Tahbilk knows marsanne like the back of its hand, having long established the varietal-site bond. This is akin to a tyo semillon, but with a greater span of aromas and flavours. Honeysuckle and straw on the bouquet, then pear and Granny Smith flavours bound by citrusy acidity. Alcohol: 12%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Sep 2018. Drink by: 2028. Price: $19. "ELECTRICALLY CHARGED PALATE", JAMES HALLIDAY

Tahbilk 1927 Vines Marsanne 2012

Region: Goulburn Valley
Rating: 97/100 2 THUMBS

Brilliant gleaming straw-green; marsanne isn't an aromatic variety (nor is semillon), so even when 6yo, don't expect too much on the bouquet. Conversely, expect more, much more on the electrically charged palate. It is beautifully balanced, honeysuckle, lime, lemon, honey and ginger playing within a near-invisible net of acidity. Tyrrells Vat 1 Semillon 2013

Region: Hunter Valley
Rating: 97/100 🍷👍

The Emperor, shy but strident, wearing a myriad of citrus and orchard colours and a tensile sash of calm, and poise. This majestic wine's light weight belies its sheer stretch of flavours across the palate. Energetic and gently grippy; tightly wound but bristling with mineral intent. Bottle age has softened this ever so slightly. Nothing more. An Australian classic in the making! Alcohol: 11.5%. Closure: screwcap. Drink by: 2033. Price: $85. Rating: 97/100.

Reflects the cool, late vintage that came as a relief after '16's fast and furious antics. Handpicked from the Yandra Vineyard, it has intensity, focus and length, uncommon qualities for sauvignon blanc, as are the mineral and citrus heartstrings of the palate. It's lipsmackingly good. YANGARRA ESTATE

Since 2000, Peter Fraser has been the winemaker and driving force behind Yangarra Estate Vineyard. Like most of today's top winemakers, Peter focuses much of his attention on the vineyards. When it comes to winemaking philosophy, Peter believes it is less about technique and more about preserving the essential taste of the vineyard: he knows that intelligent viticulture is the key to creating great wines. He also acknowledges that "you need a scientific background, then a fair bit of intelligence, experience, and bravery to let nature have her way."

Amongst his many major winemaking awards, Peter was named "Winemaker of the Year" by James Halliday in 2016.

JAMES HALLIDAY TOP 100 WINES

Reds

James Halliday was extremely impressed with the red wine division of this year's Top 100. From 664 submissions across the 'under $30' and 'over $30' categories, he found outstanding wines from a wide range of varietals and blends, especially pinot noir, shiraz, grenache, and, of course, the wildly popular roses.

"BLOODY GORGEOUS", JAMES HALLIDAY

Yangarra Estate Shiraz 2016

Region: McLaren Vale
Rating: 97/100

50% whole berries, 50% destemmed, wild yeast open-fermented, matured for 10 months in used French oak. Just another $30 McLaren Vale shiraz? Absolutely not. This is profoundly exciting, another masterpiece from Peter Fraser, Wine Companion Winemaker of the Year '16. It's not often I'm tempted to sneakily swallow half a mouthful of a wine, it's almost as if an unseen force refuses to let me actually drink a little. The wine is spicy, textured, with a rainbow of dark fruit flavours - bloody gorgeous. Alcohol: 14.5%. Tasted: Mar 2018. Drink By: 2036. Price: $35. Rating: 97/100.

Wine Radar

FIND GREAT WINE ON THE WEB

We've stumbled across a very interesting website called wineradar.com - which might make it much easier and less time-consuming for you to find an absolute wine bargain.

It's run by a wine-loving IT pro who has noticed that a great wine special does not make a great wine - but when more than one expert agrees that an inexpensive wine is a great drink, then that wine should be on your shopping list.

How does Wine Radar work?

Wine Radar scans Australian online wine retailers for specials. When it finds a special, it automatically cross-references the scores from the experts. (The retailer's own score is never taken into account). When at least two reputable experts award great scores and no experts register unfavourable scores, Wine Radar takes a closer look. If the price and the average score meet the selection criteria, that's a hit on the Wine Radar.

The Wine Radar selection criteria is:

Quaffer: Under $15, any discount, 90 points

Premium: $15 to $40, 25% discount, 92.5 points

Super Premium: Over $40, 20% discount, 95 points

Kemenys regularly has a remarkably high hit-rate on Wine Radar. In November alone, 6,704 wines were scanned and cross-matched across Australia's top nine on-line wine retailers, of which only 90 wines qualified as a hit on Wine Radar. Kemenys were responsible for 33 of those hits, or about 37% percent of the wines. That's a very significant proportion of hits across the top nine retailers.

It again highlights the supreme skills of the Kemenys tasting and buying team to identify, for you, highly rated wines at great prices.

Seppelt Chalambar Shiraz 2016

Region: Victoria Rating: 95/100 2 THUMBS

Seems to be showing a stronger Heathcote influence with this release, or perhaps it's the warmer vintage expressing itself. In any case it's quite an open and accessible wine, spicy and sweet-fruited, although there is a gamey, savoury element. Finished with a smooth veneer of oak, it's a well rounded package and continues to deliver genuine value for money. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Feb 2018. Drink by: 2028. Right up there with its proud history of quality, and also a world record number of label design changes - please don't try to improve what you have now. Even though tasted in unavoidably warm conditions, came through with flying colours. "RIDICULOUSLY CHEAP FOR A WINE OF THIS QUALITY", RAY JORDAN

Vasse Felix Cabernet Sauvignon 2015

Region: Margaret River Rating: 96/100 2 THUMBS

Captures the elegance of this great vintage. Doesn't have the density and opulence of the 2014 but there is classic angular structure. Typical graphite, soy and savoury notes with a hint of tobacco leaf with black olive nuance. Classy oak integration and fine-grained tannins. One of the very finest that marks the next statement of Vasse Felix cabernet. Ridiculously cheap for a wine of this quality. Best drinking: Now to 2030. Rating: 97/100.

SUMMER IN A BOTTLE

Pinot Gris

Pinot Gris/Grigio vines were initially brought to Australia in 1832 as Pineau Gris from the French Cote-d'Or by the godfather of Australian viticulture, James Busby. The road leading to its current mass following has been a long one.

Pinot gris has all the attributes to provide great summer drinking. With rich but lively citrus complementing the crisp varietal pear and apple flavours, it begs to be chilled and enjoyed over the summer months, especially with seafood, white meats and salads and also as a refreshing aperitif. A great all-rounder.

PINOT GRIS OR PINOT GRIGIO?

Made from one grape variety, a member of the Pinot Noir family, this grape has two different names thanks to the two countries which originally grew the variety.

Essentially, pinot gris is French name for the grape named pinot grigio by the Italians. Both names refer to the grey coloured tinge to the mature grape. The difference in the bottle is that pinot grigio is a lighter, dryer, tangy style with distinct acidity, usually as a result of earlier harvesting. Strictly speaking Pinot Gris is generally picked later and riper, to allow for a more textural, complex and luscious wine, sometimes with a touch of sweetness.

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF CRAFTING AWARD-WINNING WINES

Taylors' vision to craft world class wines started back in 1969 on the banks of the Wakefield River in the Clare Valley. It was the day mankind walked on the moon when they first stepped foot onto the terra rossa soils of what was to become the Taylors family estate. A momentous day in history and an auspicious start to Taylor's winemaking journey. In digging the first vineyard dam, there was a surprising discovery - tiny fossilised seahorses in the limestone bedrock, a reminder that 600-million years ago, the soils were part of an ancient inland sea. Taylors adopted these seahorses as the symbol for the family wine brand.

Despite fortified and sweet wines being the preferred styles of the day, in the quest to create table wines that rivalled the best of the 'old world', the family planted Australia's largest cabernet sauvignon vineyard. In 2004 they were the first major winery to release 100% of their wines under screwcap. From their first vintages, Taylors have stuck to the principle that the finest wines are those made with the greatest dedication and care. Above all, the imperative has always been to respect the fruit. It's a philosophy that has succeeded admirably.

From more than 50,000 producers and 700,000 wines, Taylors was ranked #1 by the World Association of Wine Writers and Journalists in 2017 across the top 80 international wine competitions. In 2018, they were again humbled to receive the award for the 'World's Best Cabernet' in the spiritual home of Cabernet, France, at the prestigious Concours International des Cabernets.

Rosé THE REVOLUTION CONTINUES

The rose revolution continues to rage, with no sign of slowing up. As we've pointed out previously, the French drink more rose than white wine, and in Australia, rose consumption continues to rise, especially during the warmer months. It's really the ideal wine for Australia's lifestyle. It matches any cuisine and is a great thirst quencher on its own. Freshness and versatility at once.

Here we have a great international selection of roses, all in our preferred dry and pale salmon pink style.

This has spring and summer drinking all over it. From Veneto this is made from 50% Corvina grapes, 25% Trebbiano di Lugarna with a little Syrah and Carmenere. The name '11 Minutes' refers to the amount of time the juice is left in contact with skins in order to extract colour. Pale salmon in colour, this has red berry, floral and spice aromas. Fresh and dry on the palate with lively citrus, strawberry and raspberry flavours balance with fine acidity. Chill it and love it.

BORDEAUX VIA TAYLORS

Taylors Winemakers Project Bordeaux Blend 2014

Region: South Australia Rating: 95/100

TWP stands for Taylors Winemaker's Project. When you let skilled winemakers off the leash to experiment in making wines that they want to drink you often get a great result - in this case, it is exceptional. Taylors winemakers have created a delicious red blend from Bordeaux's traditional varieties of: cabernet sauvignon, merlot, malbec and cabernet franc. A silky amalgam of blackcurrant and blueberries, spices, tobacco and smoky oak and excellent length. Extraordinary value drinking.

LUCIOUS ELEGANCE

Taylors Jaraman Shiraz 2017

Region: Clare Valley Rating: 94/100

This is a synergistic blend of Clare Valley and McLaren Vale fruit which melds the best characteristics of both regions. The Clare component contributes richness of blackberry fruit, mint and spice. McLaren Vale grapes provide dark chocolate and savoury ferrous/earthy elements. It has excellent grippy tannins and loads of length. Match it with anything beef.

Pour Les Amour Provence Rosé 2017

Region: Cotes de Provence Rating: 94/100

Pour Les Amour Rose is made from organically grown grapes from Provence in the South of France. It is a Cinsault dominate wine with Mouvedre and Grenache for depth and complexity. This 2017 Rosé is delicate pale pink in colour with lots of mouthwatering light fruit flavours including guava, watermelon, and tangelo. On the palate it is creamy, round, and full, yet it is bone dry with a crisp finish, lovely texture, and great length. Drink it from sunrise to sunset and every hour in between.

NEW ZEALAND'S ROSE HIT SENSATION

Indian Summer Rosé 2018

Region: Hawkes Bay Rating: 95/100

New Zealand's rose hit sensation has arrived at Kemenys - first. This is the first time that Indian Summer has been available in Australia despite its meteoric rise to become one of the best selling rosés across Asia. Waiana Estate, located in Hawkes Bay, only produce rose and they are very good at it. Blended from pinot gris and merlot it is a dry, ultra-pale Provencal-style rose boasting mountains of minerality. It is about as close to a Provencal rosé as you'll find outside of France. Try it and see what all the fuss is about. Perfect on a hot summer's day.

AN UNUSUAL FUSION THAT WORKS

Taylors Jaraman Chardonnay 2017

Region: Clare Valley - Margaret River Rating: 94/100

An unusual fusion of the Clare Valley and Margaret River fruit. It has intense lifted aromas of ripe citrus and fresh stone fruit with a hint of flint and spice. The Clare Valley element delivers mid palate fleshiness along with enticing citrus and white peach characters whilst the Margaret River component contributes elegance and restrained flinty notes that are typical of this region. There is a smooth creaminess and the texture is fine and tight with a fresh, crisp acidity and a long, graceful finish.

Region: Montagne de Reims
Rating: 96/100 🏆👍👍

I've long adored Brut Premier, a masterful presentation of impeccably ripe fruit of intricate balance and abundant appeal: a dependable bargain in the non-vintage champagne stakes... an excellent Brut Premier that captures the depth of Roederer in red fruits, proclaiming a little more pinot noir than usual, with all the biscuity, brioche and ginger complexity of deep reserves in barrels. The vintage lends its characteristic touch of dry grip to the finish, yet less pronounced than in most from this season. A cuvee of excellent acid drive and well-integrated dosage. Bravo. STANDOUT CHARDONNAY

Chardonnay has made a big comeback in recent years, after decades of identity crisis. When it first became a fashion item of the 1980s, the wines were overripe and over-oaked. They were impressive on the first sip but it was difficult to drink more than a glass. Chardonnay fatigue was a great boon to the sauvignon blanc invasion, with drinkers looking for something light and unoaked. With some notable exceptions, chardonnay winemakers seem to have generally overreacted through the 2000s, with many making tightly wound, highly acidic, flinty wines which many found too much of a challenge.

Over the last decade chardonnay producers have found their mojo, making a range of classic styles to suit any palate, from rich and oaky, to refined, complex masterpieces capable of cellaring beautifully for a decade or more.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

Devils Ridge Block 9 Traditional Margaret River Chardonnay 2017

Region: Margaret River
Rating: 93/100 🍷

This pioneering family of the Margaret River region harvested the first crop of chardonnay from their Miamup vineyard in the early 1980's. In those early days, chardonnay was set aside in barrel for long periods to mature into the classic style of oak-aged chardonnay. Chardonnay tastes may have evolved over the decades but many long still for that traditional style. This pioneer winery has gone back to its roots, producing a traditional style of chardonnay from the very same Miamup vineyard some 35 years on. Deep oak complexity and rich buttery character.

OLDEST AUSTRALIAN COOL-CLIMATE CHARDONNAY VINEYARDS

In the late 1960's industry icon David Wynn set out to find a place to grow truly exceptional chardonnay. He settled on land which lies at the highest point of Barossa's Eden Valley. In the early 1970's David pioneered cool climate chardonnay by planting several clones on the rocky quartz ridge of the current day Mountadam Vineyards site. The east facing ridge rises 550 metres above sea level and is home to the oldest cool climate chardonnay vineyards in Australia. A traditional chardonnay with aromas of ripe peach and cashews. French oak maturation has led to a spicy undertone on the palate and partial malolactic fermentation has given the wine a smooth, generous mid palate. Only 750 dozen produced.

GIANT STEPS
YARRA VALLEY

GIANT STEPS

Yarra Valley based vigneron, Phil Sexton lives with his family in the middle of their 80 acre vineyard established on the high north face of the Warramate Ranges in the dress circle of the Yarra Valley. Specialising in Chardonnay and Pinot Noir and Syrah, Giant Steps explore site, micro climatic and clonal differences between several specialized vineyards in the Yarra Valley and also new pinot noir vineyards in Tasmania and Central Otago. Focused intently upon reflecting the individual and unique characteristics of each single vineyard, Giant Steps adopts a minimalist approach to winemaking including, whenever possible, vinification using indigenous yeasts and gravity flow transfers.

Until recently Giant Steps have made only single vineyard wines, but the new Yarra Valley range is made from handpicked fruit from all of the estate vineyards. The wines are produced using indigenous yeasts, gravity-flow winemaking, and minimal fining and filtration. This approach produces highly expressive wines, true to the regional characteristics of the Yarra Valley.

It's a ripper drink. Shows pedigree of the top Giant Steps wines but delivers a wickedly drinkable, tangy, lemon-drizzled-apple-crunch of yummo chardonnay with enough pep and vigour (and faint salted nutty savouriness) to blast off on those warm, baking summer days. That aside, there's spring to texture, light juiciness, a pucker followed by mouth-watering refreshment to close. No brainer for quality, bright, quietly complex but wholly guzzle-worthy chardonnay. Alcohol: 12%. Tasted: Nov 2018. Drink: 2018-2025. Price: $35. Rating: 93/100.

"ALMOST LUMINOUS IN ITS VIBRANT TASTE AND COLOUR", JAMES HALLIDAY

Giant Steps LDR Pinot Noir Syrah 2017

Region: Yarra Valley
Rating: 96/100 🍷🍷

The vintage conditions were ideal for this rapidly developing style pioneered by the pocket rocket winemaker at Yarra Yering Sarah Crowe, LDR standing for light dry red. The red cherry and plum flavours bond with each other with no sign of a dividing line - it's almost luminous in its vibrant taste and colour. Alcohol: 13%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Feb 2018. "A BEAUTIFUL OBSESSION"

Giant Steps TOSQ Vineyard Pinot Noir 2017

Region: Central Otago
Rating: 97/100 🍷🍷

Giant Steps' obsession with single vineyard pinot noir has led them to source grapes from one of the most remote vineyards in Central Otago. This coldest and driest part of New Zealand situated on glacial terraces just happens to be perfect for growing pinot noir. Just to top things off, the vineyard is certified organic. This bright and expressive pinot leads with dark cherry, plum and undertones of thyme. Toasted oak notes impart a nice mouthfeel against the generous palate through a long finish. Undeniably enjoyable now and will mature gracefully over the next ten years.

HIDDEN LABELS

The Hidden Label concept is simple.

We sell high quality, highly rated wines for far less than a winery would ever be prepared to let it be sold for under its own label. Simple.

ONE OF AUSTRALIA'S GREATEST CELLARING BARGAINS

Hidden Label Central Victorian Cabernet Sauvignon 2015 (KHL 5201)

Region: Central Victoria
Rating: 94/100

Unimpeachable varietal expression from the first whiff of the bouquet to the finish of the medium-bodied palate. A fusion of cassis/blackcurrant, black olive, bay leaf and savoury tannins. As is usual, oak plays a minor role in shaping flavour. Alcohol: 14%. Tasted: Sep 2017. Drink By: 2035. Price: $26. Rating: 94/100.

Hidden Label Coonawarra Merlot 2015 (KHL 8813)

Region: Coonawarra
Rating: 95/100

It's easy to see why this should have won a trophy at the Limestone Coast Wine Show '16, its juicy cassis fruit augmented by the spicy fruit and tannin extract, the result of barrel fermentation of part of the wine. This is right up there in the context of traditional Aus clones available between '82 and '99. Alcohol: 14%. Date tasted: Dec 2016. Drink by: 2030. Price: $26. Rating: 95/100.

DESTINED FOR GREATNESS

Hidden Label Hunter Valley Special Reserve Shiraz 2017 (KHL 4180)

Region: Hunter Valley
Rating: 97/100

This outstanding shiraz comes from an excellent Hunter Valley vintage and superb parcels of shiraz grapes. Made by one of the Hunter Valley's most acclaimed winemakers, this has all the finesse and concentration found in the very best Hunter shiraz. Offers loads of rich, ripe raspberry, cassis, red cherry and plum fruit aromas. Flavours are deep and round with dark berries to the fore, savoury earth and leather notes, and sweet dark spices. Sheets of ripe chewy tannins and great length complete a formidable package. Great drinking now and destined for greatness with extended cellaring.

BEST PINOT NOIR UNDER $20

Pinot Noir is the grape behind red Burgundies, probably the world's most lauded, seductive and desired wine style. At its best pinot noir has an irresistible fragrance, a beguiling complexity of flavours and impressive structure.

Generally, good pinot noir comes with a high price tag. Pinot is notoriously difficult and expensive to grow, and requires ideal conditions to display its best characteristics. It also needs to be low-cropped which means there isn't a great volume of fruit per hectare. It's extremely difficult to find quality pinot noir at affordable 'every-day' drinking prices.

We are very lucky to have sourced a group of pinots which show remarkable pinot character and structure, at prices that won't give you palpitations

CENTRAL OTAGO PINOT NOIR WITH DUCK A PERFECT MATCH

Pinot noir and duck have always seemed to be a wine and food match made in Heaven. The gamey, rich and spicy duck flavours, especially soy and spice laden Asian styles, pick up the savoury, spice and sweet fruit of good pinot noir.

Duck can exhibit quite robust flavours, and this is where Central Otago pinot noir comes into its own. 'Central' pinot is notable for its ripe, deep, dark cherry and plum flavours, along with exotic Asian-style spice nuances. Combined with fresh natural acidity to cut through any fattiness, Central Otago teamed with duck is clearly the 'duck's nuts'.

WORLD'S BEST VALUE BURGUNDY

Domaine Mouton Givry 1er Cru Clos Jus 2014

Region: Burgundy
Rating: 95/100 🍷🍷

Domaine Mouton has been growing pinot noir in Givry's famed Premier Crus Clos Jus region for four generations. Now that didn't satisfy the famed Bordeaux estate Chateau Mouton Rothschild getting a little cross about the name, but Domaine Mouton held its ground (and name). The nose displays aromas of dark cherries followed by some meaty game like characters. A WINE TO BE SAVOURED AND SHARED WITH FRIENDS

Rabbit Ranch Pinot Noir 2016

Region: Central Otago
Rating: 94/100 🍷

New Zealand's top selling pinot noir over $20. You have to love the label. The story goes that "sheep couldn't keep up with the nocturnal activity of the rabbits, and in the end were driven off the farm land. The owner, Mr McGregor, planted some vines and tried unsuccessfully to reduce the rabbit population. Rabbits now run free on the vineyard and fueled by high altitude Pinot Noir, some are reputed to be the size of ponies, but that's another story". Baby Doll Pinot Gris 2018

Region: Marlborough Rating: 95/100
The hugely popular Babydoll range is now available at Kemenys. Babydolls (miniature sheep) roam freely at Yealands Estate. Too short to eat the grapes off the vines, they make a perfect year-round lawn mower. Winner of the Trophy for the Best Wine from New Zealand at the 2018 Hong International Wine & Spirit Competition. Babydoll senior winemaker Natalie Christensen said "after a fantastic harvest we had a feeling this pinot gris was going to be something special: really focused, with these amazing lifted aromatics and beautiful concentrated mouthfeel".

Thomas Two of a Kind Shiraz 2017

Region: Multi regional
Rating: 96/100

55% Hunter Valley, 45% McLaren Vale, fermented separately, but blended soon thereafter and matured in barriques. The synergy is absolute with this vintage. There is a purity to its heart, the two regions providing the frame for a truly beautiful shiraz. Time will only serve to increase its beauty. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Sep 2018. Drink by: 2037. Price: $25. Rating: 96/100.

McWilliams McW Reserve 660 Cabernet Sauvignon 2016

Region: Hilltops
Rating: 96/100

Full crimson-purple; a cassis/blackcurrant and spice bouquet adds another dimension on the richly flavoured palate overflowing with sweet berries. It tastes as if it was only taken from the barrel a few days ago, the tannins superfine, the finish long. A very high quality wine. Alcohol: 14.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Sep 2018. Drink by: 2036. Price: $25. Rating: 96/100.

Taylors Winemakers Project Bordeaux Blend 2014

Region: South Australia
Rating: 95/100

Deliciously compelling special blends from Taylors. An excellent combo of cabernet sauvignon, merlot, malbec and cabernet franc, this is ripe and juicy with lovely red and dark berried aromas with a dash of spice, bay leaf, some meatiness and nutty oak. A silky amalgam of blackcurrant and blueberries, spices, tobacco and smoky oak with refreshing acidity and excellent length. Quality drinking over the next decade.

Kilikanoon Mort's Block Riesling 2017

Region: Clare Valley
Rating: 96/100

Hand-picked, free-run juice cold-settled. The bouquet wastes no time in establishing the region, variety and quality of this single vineyard, multi-block riesling. The floral bouquet leads into a palate of striking intensity, texture and structure, lime and lemon both claiming ascendancy, neither winning. Alcohol: 12.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Sep 2018. Drink by: 2029. Price: $25. Rating: 96/100.

Cherubino The Yard Channybearup Sauvignon Blanc 2018

Region: Great Southern
Rating: 95/100

This has exceptional varietal flavour, both complex and long; it's not obvious, but the wine was partially fermented in French oak, which hasn't diminished the fruit expression, but has subtly increased the complexity. Appropriate terroir, high quality grapes and good winemaking at work. Alcohol: 12.8%. Date tasted: Sep 2018. Drink by: 2021. Price: $25. Rating: 95/100.

Driftwood Artifacts Chardonnay 2017

Region: Margaret River
Rating: 96/100

Gin Gin clone from the Driftwood and Churchview Vineyards, wild-fermented in French oak (27% new), no mlf, matured on lees for 8 months. The energy and drive of this wine is exceptional, particularly given its finesse and freshness. Indeed, there's a delicacy to the precision of the way the components move across the palate and onto the finish and aftertaste. Alcohol: 13%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Jan 2018. Drink by: 2025. Price: $32. Rating: 96/100.

Dexter Pinot Noir 2017

Region: Mornington Peninsula
Rating: 96/100

Bright red/purple colour and a superbly fresh, fragrant cherry aroma, with background spices and dried herb traces. Very intense, vibrant and precise. An outstanding young pinot destined for a long and distinguished life. Closure: screwcap. Drink: 2018-2030. Price: $60. Rating: 96/100.

Crossroads Winemakers Collection Syrah 2014

Region: Hawkes Bay
Rating: 97/100

The Winemakers Collection Syrah from Crossroads includes the winery's finest parcels of fruit, carefully prepared and selected from their own vineyards. This intensely aromatic wine has complex dark berry and plum with hints of violets pepper and smoke on the nose. The palate is rich and silky with blackberry and cherry flavours, savoury spices and a long finish. There is an elegance here that one only finds with top quality cool climate reds.

Richard Hamilton Centurion 125 Year Old Shiraz 2017

Region: McLaren Vale
Rating: 96/100

Very deep, youthful, concentrated purple/red colour, the bouquet very young and raw, blood plum and sweet dried cranberry aromas. The wine is concentrated and lushly-fruited, profound and supple, the tannins fine and soft, the oak very much in the background. Long carry. The wine is callow and unready but has the makings of something special. (The vineyard's 125th anniversary vintage). Drink: 2021-2038. Price: $80. Rating: 95/100.

Cape Mentelle Chardonnay 2016

Region: Margaret River
Rating: 97/100

Whole-bunch pressed to French barrels for wild fermentation and a lengthy sojourn. Full-on green-gold; it's exceptionally intense and concentrated, with all manner of stone fruits and a savoury gauze of grapefruit juice and zest. The acidity is important now, and will be so later. Striking. Alcohol: 14%. Date tasted: Sep 2017. Drink by: 2026. Price: $47. Rating: 97/100.

Penfolds Bin 51 Eden Valley Riesling 2016

Region: Eden Valley
Rating: 95/100

Highly expressive release. It sure is up and about. Cool, pristine aromas of lime and lime blossom with travels of talc asserting through the finish. Steely, almost gravelly character to the aftertaste. Brilliantly dry. There's an element to this of sucking on stones and quartz, if that makes sense. In short, it's a gorgeous young riesling. Alcohol: 12%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Oct 16. Drink: 2016-2027+. Rating: 95/100.

First Creek Winemakers Reserve Semillon 2015

Region: Hunter Valley
Rating: 96/100

A pristine and complete Hunter semillon, it oozes its class from the outset; lemongrass and lime leaf lead to a beautifully shaped palate with texture, length and restraint; it has a pithy and long finish. Alcohol: 10.5%. Closure: screwcap. Date tasted: Mar 2016. Drink by: 2035. Price: $60. Rating: 96/100.

Rating: 92/100 🍷🍷

Margaret River is home to, arguably, Australia's finest chardonnays. This one is made by one of Margaret River's pioneering families, responsible for some outstanding wines at incredibly reasonable prices. James Halliday says that "consistent with other wines under this label, a cut above most at $18" - so our price of $7.95 a bottle is very, very special. Rich and creamy with intense stone fruit flavour and excellent length. Match it with BBQ salmon fillet with a coriander and lime pistou.

Rating: 95/100 🍷🍷

Kemenys has long been an admirer of this classic riesling. From the outstanding Pemberton region, this cracking white regularly receives rave reviews for its brilliant flavours and great cellaring potential. It's a wine of outstanding balance and structure, and its great track record heralds Pemberton as a region to watch when it comes to great riesling. James Halliday in awarding the wine 94/100 was highly impressed by this gem and said it's "a generous and complex mouthfilling riesling...Notwithstanding its development potential, it's no sin to share a bottle or two without further delay"

Rating: 94/100 🍷🍷

After over a century of producing stellar wines exclusively from their 'home' region, one of Australia's most prominent family producers made their first wine from Heathcote shiraz in 1997, having long admired the wines from this famous Victorian region. This shiraz, made by a legendary Australian producer has cemented its reputation as Australia's "go-to" Heathcote shiraz because of its outstanding quality and great value-for-money at the cellar door price of $25 a bottle. Our price of only $9.95 is so amazingly low for a shiraz of this quality, that we have to keep the identity of the wine absolutely top secret.

Rating: 96/100 🍷🍷

"This hits like a thunderstorm" says James Halliday. It is deeper and darker than you would expect from an Adelaide hills shiraz. Whilst complex, it retains the elegance of top Adelaide Hills shiraz that sells for twice the price. This winery's fortunes grew exponentially from 2012, when the winemaker from none other than Shaw + Smith joined (so he knows all about making exceptional cool climate shiraz). Their shiraz has since won numerous accolades including the title of "Best Australian Red Wine" at the 2014 International Wine Challenge. James Halliday has, very recently, rated this shiraz a hefty 96 points and it is a serious bargain at its already modest cellar door price of $26 a bottle. We are very fortunate to have secured a small quantity for Kemenys customers at an unheard of price...only $13.95 a bottle.

Rating: 94/100 🍷🍷

After pleading with this famous wine producer, we have been given the green light to sell their Hunter Valley estate shiraz for an incredibly low price. Just ask for Secret Label Hunter Valley Shiraz 2016 (KSL 6549) and you will receive the wine, also wearing the producer's label, for only $9.95. It currently sells for $25 at cellar door. James Halliday is an admirer, noting that "it is indelibly stamped with Hunter structure and savour. Bravo!...this is enjoyable now but will be a surprise after some bottle age". Don't miss this.
